Document submittal date – 04-06-2022

As submitted, the document(s) reviewed appear(s) to meet the 2004 Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (2004 ADAAG) and other applicable design standards, as required by Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) 103-50 to the maximum extent feasible. Final responsibility to comply with HRS 103-50 rests with the State or County agency overseeing the project.

If any technical infeasibility, structural impracticability, historic preservation or other facility access review forms were submitted the determination of the limitations rests with the Department/Agency and design firm signing the form.

If the document(s) reviewed contained area(s) that were noted as “NIC” or “By Others” a review of those area(s) was not included as part of this document review. Those area(s), feature(s) or element(s) must be submitted for review to assess compliance with the 2004 Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (2004 ADAAG) and other applicable design standards required by HRS 103-50.
