SECTION TWO

SERVICE SPECIFICATIONS

SECTION TWO – SERVICE SPECIFICATIONS

2.0.1 Introduction

A. Background

The Judiciary, State of Hawaii, provides support, intervention, and/or rehabilitative services to juveniles and families through its Juvenile Client and Family Services (aka Family Courts). In carrying out the goals for these areas, Family Court utilizes community resources on a purchase of Health and Human Services basis. The following provides the specifications for organizations wishing to provide services to the Judiciary for the period February 1, 2023, through June 30, 2024. Upon evaluation and acceptance of proposals, when practicable and upon mutual agreement, contracts may be negotiated for the island of Oahu, making services available to youth and families in First Circuit Family Court. The initial contract term will be for the period February 1, 2023, through June 30, 2024, and may be extended for the period July 1, 2024, through June 30, 2026.

1. Juvenile Services

The Family Courts in Hawaii believe that there is promise in all youth and families who are involved in our system. Beginning with the Juvenile Detention Alternative Initiative (JDAI) in 2009, juvenile justice reform efforts have been underway for several years in Hawaii, using current research and information on best practices for justice involved youth and their families. Holding youth accountable for their actions is important. In doing so, we must also increase community capacity to provide youth opportunities to heal, develop pro-social skills, and build on their strengths.

Most youth in our juvenile justice system are non-violent offenders who are best served in the community. Recent studies have found that youth who do not pose a public safety risk have better outcomes in nonresidential programs using evidence-based practices, close to their own neighborhoods, and integrated into generally pro-social groups (U.S Attorney General. National Task Force on Children Exposed to Violence: Rethinking Our Juvenile Justice System, December 2012). By connecting justice involved youth with their communities, while holding them accountable for their behavior, we hope to divert them from deeper involvement in the justice system, and thereby promote better long-term life outcomes. Youth involved in the deeper end of the justice system tend to have poorer outcomes.

The federal Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) reports a meta-analysis of community-based programs found that effective programs: 1) concentrate on changing behavior and improving prosocial skills, 2) focus on problem solving with both juveniles and their families, 3) have multiple modes of intervention, and 4) are highly structured and intensive.

The Judiciary is seeking qualified community providers to be part of our reform efforts, by creating places of healing for youth and families, through a continuum of care, using evidence-based practices. Consideration will be given to proposals that reflect an alignment with:

- JDAI: Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI): provides the framework for Hawaii's juvenile justice reform effort. JDAI is driven by a vision that seeks to change the odds for court-involved youth and increases their chances of growing out of their delinquent behavior and leading productive lives. If juvenile justice reform can improve the life chances of court-involved youth, then we all benefit. Public safety will be 2-3 improved, families will remain intact, and fewer taxpayer dollars will be spent on secure confinement and corrections. For more information on JDAI go to jdaihelpdesk.org
- Family Strengthening Youth Development: Family involvement in juvenile justice is a central principle of Hawaii's juvenile justice system reform. Research shows that family strengthening programs can curb crime and delinquency, and that family-focused approaches have demonstrated outcomes that are positive and enduring. The family strengthening youth development framework presents an evolution of positive youth development approaches that recognizes the importance of grounding work with youth within the context of family and community. Its basic premises include the family plays a critical role in youth development and various community resources are needed to assist the family as it endeavors to provide supports and opportunities for its young people. Proposals need to include strategies to outreach, engage, and involve parents/caregivers.
- Trauma Informed Care: The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) defines a trauma informed organization as: A program, organization, or system that is trauma-informed realizes the widespread impact of trauma and understands potential paths for healing; recognizes the signs and symptoms of trauma in staff, clients, and others involved with the system; and responds by fully integrating knowledge about trauma into policies, procedures, practices, and settings.
- Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA): The PREA prohibits sexual violence and abuse in all custodial correctional facilities operated by Federal, State, or local governments and their contracted providers of residential services. It also established a set of standards to prevent, reduce, and sanction sexual violence in a custodial and/or residential setting. All organizations providing residential services to court involved youth must demonstrate a commitment to be compliant with the PREA Juvenile Facility Standards. The standards are available at: <https://www.bja.gov/Programs/PREA-JuvenileFacilityStandards.pdf>

- Motivational Interviewing (MI): Prospective youth serving agencies should be familiar with and practice MI skills in their interaction with youth. MI is a collaborative, goal-oriented method of communication that pays attention to the language of change. It is designed to strengthen personal motivation and commitment to a specific goal by eliciting and exploring one's reasons for change within an environment of acceptance and compassion (Miller and Rolnick, 2012). Enhancing behavioral change through MI is vital to our juvenile justice reform efforts. It is recognized as an evidence-based practice by the National Institute of Corrections and SAMHSA. MI is recognized for its ability to lessen resistance, increase offender motivation, and promote positive behavioral change.
- Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, or Questioning (LGBTQ) Support: Providers must demonstrate an understanding of the factors contributing to the disproportionate numbers of LGBTQ youth in the system and adopt policies to improve the quality of care provided to these youth. Like all young people, they have the right to be safe and protected. Environments of care must be safe, accepting, and affirming for all youth

• Cultural and Linguistic Competency: The extent to which services and treatments are culturally sensitive may determine a youth and family's acceptance or rejection of those services. Culturally sensitive services need to be individually tailored with voice and input from the youth and family. Service providers must be conscious of the dynamics involved when cultures interact and must have strategies to effectively communicate with a diverse client population.
- Gender Responsive Services: Prospective providers should demonstrate an understanding of gender responsive principles as it applies to youth they propose to serve. In Hawaii and nationally, there is a growing number of justice involved girls. Proposals should include a description of gender responsive considerations for services that will be provided.
- Commitment to Professional Development: Prospective providers shall support and demonstrate an understanding of our juvenile justice reform efforts as it relates to the youth we service. Criminogenic risk and need areas assessed include the following domains: Legal History, Family, School, Community and Peers, Substance Abuse, Mental Health, Aggression, Attitudes, Skills, and Employment/Free time. Proposals shall demonstrate applicant's capacity to individualize services based on identified needs. Proposals must include capacity to provide cognitive behavioral interventions to target criminogenic needs identified in the YASI assessment (as appropriate).

B. Purpose or Need

Despite the high rates of substance use reported at the time of arrest, youth involved in Family Court are missing opportunities to engage early in the identification and treatment of alcohol and substance use. Using evidence-based practices, assessment and treatment services can identify and treat patterns of alcohol and/or drug use of youth who put themselves, their family, and the community at risk. Additionally, parents may not have the resources or understanding to deal with their child's substance use and requirements of court supervision. Family involvement in a youth's juvenile justice interactions may play a central role in achieving a successful outcome. Family engagement services will provide parents with knowledge and the confidence to participate in their child's recovery and to work as a team with Family Court to improve a child's success while under court supervision.

1. Representations and Conditions Precedent

1.1 Contract Subject to the Availability of State and Federal Funds.

1.1.1 State Funds. This Contract is, at all times, subject to the appropriation and allotment of state funds, and may be terminated without liability to either the PROVIDER or the STATE in the event that state funds are not appropriated or available.

1.1.2 Federal Funds. To the extent that this Contract is funded partly or wholly by federal funds, this Contract is subject to the availability of such federal funds. The portion of this Contract that is to be funded federally shall be deemed severable, and such federally funded portion may be terminated without liability to either the PROVIDER or the STATE in the event that federal funds are not available. In any case, this Contract shall not be construed to obligate the STATE to expend state funds to cover any shortfall created by the unavailability of anticipated federal funds.

1.2 Representations of the PROVIDER. As a necessary condition to the formation of this Contract, the PROVIDER makes the representations contained in this paragraph, and the STATE relies upon such representations as a material inducement to entering into this Contract.

1.2.1 Compliance with Laws. As of the date of this Contract, the PROVIDER complies with all federal, state, and county laws, ordinances, codes, rules, and regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time, that in any way affect the PROVIDER's performance of this Contract.

1.3 Compliance with Laws. The PROVIDER shall comply with all federal, state, and county laws, ordinances, codes, rules, and regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time, that in any way affect the PROVIDER's performance of this Contract, including but not limited to the laws specifically enumerated in this paragraph:

- Nothing in the insurance requirements of this Contract shall be construed as limiting the extent of PROVIDER's responsibility for payment of damages resulting from its operations under this Contract, including the PROVIDER's separate and independent duty to defend, indemnify, and hold the STATE and its officers and employees harmless pursuant to other provisions of this Contract.
- 1.5 Notice to Clients. - 3.4 Independent Contractor Status and Responsibilities, Including Tax Responsibilities.
 - 3.4.1 Independent Contractor. In the performance of services required under this Contract, the PROVIDER is an “independent contractor,” with the authority and responsibility to control and direct the performance and details of the work and services required under this Contract; however, the STATE shall have a general right to inspect work in progress to determine whether, in the STATE’s opinion, the services are being performed by the PROVIDER in compliance with this Contract.

The provisions of this paragraph shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the expiration or early termination of this Contract.
- 5.2 Cost of Litigation. In case the STATE shall, without any fault on its part, be made a party to any litigation commenced by or against the PROVIDER in connection with this Contract, the PROVIDER shall pay any cost and expense incurred by or imposed on the STATE, including attorneys' fees.

6. Publicity

- 6.1 Acknowledgment of State Support. The PROVIDER shall, in all news releases, public statements, announcements, broadcasts, posters, programs, computer postings, and other printed, published, or electronically disseminated materials relating to the PROVIDER's performance under this Contract, acknowledge the support by the State of Hawai'i and the purchasing agency.
- 6.2 PROVIDER's Publicity Not Related to Contract. The PROVIDER shall not refer to the STATE, or any office, agency, or officer thereof, or any state employee, or to the services or goods, or both provided under this Contract, in any of the PROVIDER's publicity not related to the PROVIDER's performance under this Contract, including but not limited to commercial advertisements, recruiting materials, and solicitations for charitable donations.

7. Miscellaneous Provisions

- 7.2 Paragraph Headings. The paragraph headings appearing in this Contract have been inserted for the purpose of convenience and ready reference. They shall not be used to define, limit, or extend the scope or intent of the sections to which they pertain.
- 7.3 Antitrust Claims. The STATE and the PROVIDER recognize that in actual economic practice, overcharges resulting from antitrust violations are in fact usually borne by the purchaser. Therefore, the PROVIDER hereby assigns to the STATE any and all claims for overcharges as to goods and materials purchased in connection with this Contract, except as to overcharges which result from violations commencing after the price is established under this Contract and which are not passed on to the STATE under an escalation clause.
- 7.4 Governing Law. The validity of this Contract and any of its terms or provisions, as well as the rights and duties of the parties to this Contract, shall be governed by the laws of the State of Hawai'i. promises, warranties, and representations, which shall have no further force or effect. There are no contracts, conditions, understandings, promises, warranties, or representations, oral or written, express or implied, between the STATE and the PROVIDER other than as set forth or as referred to herein.

- 7.7 Severability. In the event that any provision of this Contract is declared invalid or unenforceable by a court, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms of this Contract.
- 7.8 Waiver. The failure of the STATE to insist upon the strict compliance with any term, provision, or condition of this Contract shall not constitute or be deemed to constitute a waiver or relinquishment of the STATE’s right to enforce the same in accordance with this Contract. The fact that the STATE specifically refers to one provision of the Procurement Rules or one section of the Hawai‘i Revised Statutes, and does not include other provisions or statutory sections in this Contract shall not constitute a waiver or relinquishment of the STATE’s rights or the PROVIDER’s obligations under the Procurement Rules or statutes.

HAWAI'I JUDICIARY POLICY DISCRIMINATION/HARASSMENT-FREE WORKPLACE

I. Authority and Background

The Judiciary is committed to promoting and maintaining a productive work environment free of any form of discrimination and harassment. The Judiciary does not tolerate workplace discrimination or harassment. The Judiciary will take appropriate action when discrimination or harassment is based on a person's "protected class." The Judiciary will act to curb protected class discrimination or harassment without regard to its severity or pervasiveness and does not require that discrimination or harassment rise to the level of unlawfulness before taking action.

II. Zero Tolerance Policy

Judiciary employees are expected to avoid behavior that could reasonably be perceived as discrimination or harassment prohibited under this policy. The Judiciary will take appropriate action when discrimination or harassment is based on a person's race, color, sex, including gender identity or expression,¹ sexual orientation, condition of pregnancy, act of breastfeeding or expressing milk, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, genetic information,² marital status, arrest and court record, income assignment for child support, national guard absence, uniformed service, veteran status, citizenship, credit history or credit report unless directly related to a bona fide occupational qualification, or domestic or sexual violence victim status if the domestic or sexual violence victim provides notice to the victim's employer of such status or the employer has actual knowledge of such status (protected class discrimination).

¹ "Gender identity or expression" includes a person's actual or perceived gender, as well as a person's gender identity (including transgender), gender-related self-image, gender-related appearance, or gender-related expression, regardless of whether that gender identity, gender-related self-image, gender-related appearance, or gender-related expression is different from that traditionally associated with the person's sex assigned at birth. "Transgender" refers to a person whose sex assigned at birth is different from their self-identified gender (e.g. a person whose sex assigned at birth is male who identifies as female and/or a person whose sex assigned at birth is female who identifies as male). A transgender person does not have to have undergone medical treatment or surgical procedures to be protected under the Policy. An individual's self-declaration of gender is sufficient to be provided protection under the Policy.

² "Genetic information" includes information about an individual's genetic tests and the genetic tests of an individual's family members, as well as information about any disease, disorder, or condition of an individual's family members (i.e., an individual's family medical history). Family medical history is included in the definition of "genetic information" because it is often used to determine whether someone has an increased risk of getting a disease, disorder, or condition in the future.

A. Scope of Policy

This policy applies to all employees, justices and judges, volunteers, applicants for employment, and persons or entities providing services to the Judiciary, whether on a contract, per diem, full or part-time basis. This policy covers all interactions with staff, clients, and the public.

All Judiciary employees are responsible for ensuring that work in the courts and court-related programs is conducted in an atmosphere that respects the dignity of every Judiciary employee, and people with whom the Judiciary conducts business.

B. Examples of Prohibited Conduct

1. It is a violation of this policy to engage in protected class discrimination.
2. Discrimination or harassment prohibited under this policy includes, but is not limited to, oral, written, physical or visual behavior, that offends, demeans, or intimidates, or refusing to provide services and/or denying access to Judiciary facilities and/or programs, based on a person's status in a protected class.
3. Protected class characteristics may not be used as a basis for taking employment action or making an employment decision that results in an adverse change in benefits, or terms and conditions of employment.
4. Other harassing or offensive conduct directed at individuals based on protected class characteristics is prohibited under this policy, and includes, but is not limited to:
 - a. Unwanted physical contact, sexually suggestive or offensive touching, patting, hugging, or brushing against a person's clothing or body, pinching, or hitting;
 - b. Sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, repeated and unwanted attempts at a romantic relationship, sexually explicit questions, comments about physical attributes;
 - c. Lewd comments, sexual jokes, pressure for sexual activity, such as repeated requests for dates, and threats for refusing a sexual advance;
 - d. Displays of demeaning, insulting, or sexually suggestive objects, pictures, or photographs;

- e. Demeaning, insulting, intimidating, or sexually suggestive, written, recorded, or electronically transmitted messages (such as e-mail, voicemail, and Internet materials);
 - f. Offensive comments, slurs, jokes, profanity, anecdotes, offensive and/or inappropriate questions or statements to, about or regarding any protected class;
 - g. Refusal to address a person by their preferred name, provided that such name shall not be used when deemed to be inappropriate for a business setting; and
 - h. Disregarding a person's preferences based on his or her self-identified gender. This may include, but is not limited to, failing to address a person by his or her preferred name and/or pronoun, not allowing a person to use the restroom and/or locker room of his or her self-identified gender or limiting a person to using facilities that are an unreasonable distance or travel time from the worksite or Judiciary program location because the individual is transgender, requiring a transgender person to follow procedures that conflict with the person's self-identified gender, refusing to provide services and/or denying access to Judiciary facilities and/or programs based on the person's self-identified gender and/or being transgender.
5. Retaliation: The Judiciary encourages reporting of incidents of discrimination, harassment or retaliation. Retaliation against an individual who makes a complaint, participates in an investigation, or provides information, is prohibited. A person who experiences retaliatory action after taking the following actions should report the matter to the investigator in charge of the complaint or the Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Officer:
- a. Making a complaint of harassment or discrimination;
 - b. Making a disability related request for reasonable accommodation; or
 - c. Participating in a complaint investigation.

C. Reporting Procedures

The Judiciary encourages employees to report discrimination and/or harassment before it becomes severe or pervasive so that steps may be taken to stop the harassment before it rises to the level of unlawful behavior.

Anyone who observes or experiences discrimination or harassment prohibited under this policy is encouraged, if at all possible, to make it clear to the offender that he or she finds such behavior offensive. The incidents should also be reported to an immediate supervisor, other supervisory personnel, a program or court administrator, or the EEO Officer who after reviewing the complaint will determine the appropriate follow-up. Employees are not required to report a complaint to their immediate supervisor or to make a complaint to the offender.

While this section describes the general procedures for reporting complaints of discrimination, harassment or retaliation in the workplace, more specific procedural information is attached to this policy as Attachment 1 and describes, in detail, how to report a complaint, including how to report a complaint to an external agency. Regardless of how the complaint is made, all complaints will be taken seriously and investigated promptly.

D. Limited Confidentiality

The Judiciary shall, to the extent possible, protect the confidentiality of substantiated and unsubstantiated discrimination, harassment and retaliation reports and investigations. Information regarding reports and investigations shall be shared with appropriate individuals and agencies on a "need to know" basis, with due consideration for safety, security, and other interests.

III. Responsibility for Implementing Policy

Judges, chief court administrators and department heads shall ensure that this policy is implemented and enforced within their own courtrooms and programs.

A violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.

IV. Review of Policy

This policy was established in 1998 and amended in 2000, 2007, 2012, and 2017.

Approved:
Rodney A. Maile
Administrative Director of the Courts

Date: MAY 20 2017

Attachment 1

PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, OR RETALIATION IN THE WORKPLACE

I. Procedures

The Judiciary urges the reporting of any incidents of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, regardless of the identity of the alleged offender. Anyone who observes or experiences discrimination or harassment prohibited under the Discrimination/Harassment-Free Workplace Policy is encouraged, if at all possible, to make it clear to the offender that he or she finds such behavior offensive. Conduct that violates the Discrimination/Harassment-Free Workplace Policy should also be reported to an immediate supervisor, other supervisory personnel, a program or court administrator, or the Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Officer at 539-4336.

Employees are not required to report a complaint to their immediate supervisor or to make a complaint to the offender.

A complaint or report may be made either orally or in writing (a complaint form is available through the EEO Officer). A complaint or report, whether oral or written, should include: name of the alleged offender(s), including position and department, if known, a summary of the offensive acts, with the dates, times and places of the incidents, the names of witnesses to the events, and copies of documents, if any, that support the complaint or report.

II. Limited Confidentiality

The Judiciary shall, to the extent possible, protect the confidentiality of substantiated and unsubstantiated discrimination, harassment and retaliation reports and investigations. Information regarding reports and investigations shall be shared with appropriate individuals and agencies on a "need to know" basis, with due consideration for safety, security, and other interests.

III. Action Taken on Complaints

All complaints will be investigated promptly. The Judiciary may take appropriate interim action while an investigation is pending, including placing the accused person on leave or temporary assignment.

If the Judiciary finds that an employee violated the Discrimination/Harassment-Free Workplace Policy, the Judiciary will take appropriate corrective action, up to and including discharge of the employee. If an investigation shows that a justice or judge violated the Discrimination/Harassment-Free Workplace Policy, the matter shall be referred to the Commission on Judicial Conduct, which has exclusive authority to take disciplinary action against justices and judges. If the person found to have violated the policy is not employed by the Judiciary, other appropriate action shall be taken, including notice to the employer. If the person found to have violated the policy is a lawyer, the findings shall also be reported to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel.

IV. Referring Complaints to External Agencies

In addition to the procedures described above, complaints about discrimination, harassment, or retaliation in the workplace may also be reported to other appropriate agencies, including but not limited to, the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Hawai'i Civil Rights Commission, and labor unions. Conduct by a justice or judge that violates the Discrimination/Harassment-Free Workplace Policy shall be reported to the Commission on Judicial Conduct and the Judicial Selection Commission.

Agencies may have time limitations for filing complaints. For example, complaints of unlawful discriminatory practices must be filed with the Hawai'i Civil Rights Commission no later than one hundred eighty (180) days, or with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission no later than three hundred (300) days from the date of: (1) the alleged unlawful discriminatory act; or (2) the last occurrence of discrimination in a pattern of ongoing discriminatory conduct.

Persons wishing to file complaints with other agencies should contact that agency to obtain information on their specific procedures and should not wait for resolution of a complaint made to the employer, including the Judiciary. Contact information for other agencies are as follows:
