NOTICE OF CONSENT TO SEARCH

Please read the following carefully:

THE LAW

Constitutional Law holds that all persons have a right to be free of unreasonable searches and seizures. An unreasonable search invades a reasonable expectation of privacy. Where an individual does not have a reasonable expectation of privacy, a search is lawful. For the most part, searches for individuals and their property within penal institutions do not violate a reasonable expectation of privacy provided such searches are prudently carried out, and safeguards against such abuse of such practices are governed by facility policy and procedures.

(Auth: HRS 353-3; Imp: HRS 351)

NOTICE

Every visitor of a correctional institution (including those authorized to perform work or private services, either through contract or volunteer), and every employee are subject to search of their person, including strip search, and of their vehicle, locker or other personal property at anytime with reasonable cause. Employment at and/or access to any facility may be denied or terminated if you refuse to sign this Notice of Consent to Search Form.

CONSENT

I have read or have had the above statement read to me, and fully understand its contents and agree to submit to a reasonable search of my person, including strip search, my vehicle, and any property upon entering any correctional facility.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

- A. A person commits the offense of promoting prison contraband in the first degree if he/she intentionally conveys a dangerous instrument or drug to any person confined in a correctional or detention facility; or being a person confined in a correctional or detention facility, he intentionally makes, obtains, or possesses a dangerous instrument or drug.

A "dangerous instrument" shall have the same meaning as defined in HRS 707-700 (4); a dangerous instrument may only be possessed by or conveyed to a confined person with the Warden's express prior approval; a "drug" shall include any of the items listed in HRS 712-1240 (1) to (3) and (5) to (7); a drug may only be possessed by or conveyed to a confined person under medical supervision.

Promoting Prison Contraband in the First Degree is a class B felony. A person who has been convicted of a class B felony may be sentenced to ten (10) years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine (See HRS 710-1022).

- B. A person commits the offense of promoting prison contraband in the second degree if he/she intentionally conveys known contraband to any person confined in a correctional or detention facility; or being a person confined in a correctional or detention facility, he/she intentionally makes, obtains, or possesses known contraband.

"Contraband" mean any article or thing which a person, confined in a correctional or detention facility, is prohibited from obtaining or possessing by statute, rules, regulation, or order. Any article or thing not specifically authorized by the Warden or guidelines is contraband.

Promoting Prison Contraband in the Second Degree is a class C felony. A person who has been convicted of a class C felony may be sentenced to five (5) years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine (See HRS 710-1023).

- C. Every visitor upon authorized entry into a correctional facility or its grounds will be subject to a search of his or her person, vehicle, or any item in his/her possession (See HAR, Title 23, Subtitle 2, Chapter 100-6).

THE IDENTIFICATION INFORMATION PROVIDED ABOVE WILL BE DISPOSED OF AFTER THE COMPLETION OF THE VISIT WITHOUT INCIDENT
