The emergency condition creates an immediate and serious need for goods, services or construction that cannot be met through normal procurement methods, the lack of which would seriously threaten the continued function of government, the preservation or protection of property of the health or safety of any person.

Besides the criteria for the emergency repair the following apply to emergency repairs:

The State will offer the emergency repair to the successful Bidder. If the Bidder declines the emergency portion of the repair or the State is unable to contact the Bidder by phone the emergency part of the repair will be offered to another Contractor. The Contractor must immediately respond upon accepting the emergency repair. The Contractor shall work continuously on the emergency repair until the hazard is contained. When the hazard is contained, and the site is safe the emergency part of the project is completed.

If another Contractor is called to perform the work once the hazard is contained and the site is safe, the balance of the project is performed by the successful Bidder for IFB-25-003-01.

EQUIPMENT

To receive compensation for the equipment, safety and/or traffic control items the Contractor must notify the State verbally and confirmed in writing what equipment will be used and an estimate of the length of time that it will be used when accepting the project. If the Contractor owns the equipment, safety, or traffic control items the cost of the items along with the mobilization and demobilization costs should be included in line item #4 to be compensated.

The Contractor shall submit the original receipt for the rented equipment, safety, or traffic control items with the invoice for the project. The State will allow a five per cent (5%) markup for equipment rental for overhead and profit.
