

FLIGHT STATUS DATA FOR DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

SCOPE OF WORK

The Department of Agriculture seeks Information Technology (IT) services to deliver real-time flight status data for each of the five major airports in Hawaii. The airports are Lihue Airport, Daniel K. Inouye International Airport, Kahului Airport, Ellison Onizuka Kona International Airport at Keahole, and Hilo International Airport.

1. QUALIFICATION – The Contractor shall meet the minimum qualification. Bidders are required to attach a resume of each personnel resource and highlight it on the resume to clearly indicate the experience that supports their experience meets the minimum qualification(s).
2. FLIGHT STATUS DATA DELIVERABLE – The flight status website shall include, but is not limited to the following:
 1. At a minimum, real-time data (24/7/365) for the following:
 - a. Airline
 - b. Date
 - c. Flight Number
 - d. City (Departure and Arrival)

Tracking 300-400 flights a day, approximately 25,000 hits a month

Three years from May 5, 2025, until May 4, 2028